29 February - 2 March 2008, IMMA

*Rex Levitates Dance Company presentsSUEDEHEADby New York dance artist and choreographer Jodi Melnick*A dance for four. Four individual solos, often seen intersecting, interrupting, invading one another. Coming and going. How to be coming and going at the same time.Starting with a working process with an openness to the performers and their beautiful, sometimes jarring, one step at a time, bird by bird.It has to be like that.

Suedehead, a new piece by Jodi Melnick will premiere in the majestic Great Hall at the Irish Museum of Modern Art (IMMA). Jodi collaborates with composer Denis Roche and lighting designer Sinead Wallace and with dancers Liz Roche, Justine Doswell, Grant McLay and Jenny Roche to bring this eclectic, instinctive and elusive piece to life.
